

We recently invited you to complete our RSE (Relationships and Sex Education) Parental Consultation and would like to thank you for taking part. As a Federation we are committed to working in partnership with parents and all stakeholders within it and, as such, your feedback is invaluable. We have used this feedback to further develop our RSE policy, curriculum and how we communicate with families about RSE/PSHE in schools.

I know where to find information about PSHE/RSE at AddMore on the website  ■ yes ■ no	Our website contains information about our RSE/PSHE policy, statement of intent, progression, PSHE vocabulary, book list, parent guide and results of the parent consultation. All of which can be found on the RSE/PSHE 2022/23 page located in the Learning – Our curriculum statement 2022/23 section of our websites.

I feel happy with the content of the RSE/PSHE policy  ■ strongly agree ■ agree
I am aware of the topics that will be covered in RSE/PSHE sessions at AddMore  ■ yes ■ no	Prior to RSE lessons, letters are sent home to inform about which topics and themes are going to be covered by each class. Further information can be found on our websites, including our progression route.
Are there any other comments you would like to make about the RSE/PSHE provision at AddMore? It is important to be kept in the loop on a regular basis on what exactly they are covering so we can talk about it home also. I feel all topics covered are age appropriate I am happy with the curriculum. I think it is hugely important to speak about consent and what is NOT ok in a relationship. My child has spoken to me at home about what a respectful friendship looks like after learning about it at school. I am happy about the topics she will learn about during RSE/PHSE. These subjects are an important part of life, and having them taught in school is an excellent thing.	We also have a range of age appropriate books covering a range of RSE topics available for parents and families to borrow. These topics are taught explicitly during our weekly PSHE lessons as well as being imbedded throughout our school life.
